Wink's Going to Bangkok!

Your Chance to Save BIG on Rubies and Sapphires

In our continuing efforts to always bring you the best values in fine jewelry, my wife Resa and I will be traveling to Bangkok on September fourth through the fourteenth to search for exquisite rubies and sapphires. Bangkok is a clearinghouse for these treasures and a large portion of the world's supply of these gems passes through Thailand on its way to the world's gem markets. We expect to find some GREAT BARGAINS!!!

Our host will be an American who is married to a Chinese Thai with many years in the jewelry industry as a buyer for Mowad, one of the largest jewelry firms in the world. She now has her own manufacturing business in Thailand and will be both our guide and our negotiator. With this type of introduction to the gem markets of Thailand we expect to be able to save from 25%-45% on your ruby and sapphire desires. If you are interested in rubies and sapphires there will probably never be a better time to buy one. Please call us before September 2nd, at 344-0800 to arrange for me to seek out a stone just for you or your special someone.

Technology will allow me to stay in communication with you via email so we will be able to communicate constantly about any possible stones that you might want to buy. This could be the next best thing to being there, so call now and let's talk if you are interested in rubies or sapphires!

On a personal note, this trip is also in celebration of Resa's and my thirtieth wedding anniversary. I am amazed at how short a time this seems. Still, I have been selling engagement rings to the children of people who purchased their engagement rings from me, so I know the years are marching on!

Let's find that perfect ruby or sapphire for you so you can join our celebration too.

Respectfully submitted,

Wink Jones
