DARN! No Winners, YET!!!

Well, we had three people only be one number off of our contest numbers last month, but no winner yet. I leave on the morning of the 14th for two weeks in Chile, and then immediately on my return I head for the Tucson Gem Show, to find more treasures for you!

I appreciate the tremendous turnout we had and I have tried to decide how to best handle the lack of winners for our prizes of up to $1,000 with the $50 Inti bills that I sent you last month.

You Still Have a Chance to Win!!!

I have decided that I gave you those bills because I wanted both to thank you and I wanted somebody to win those prizes of $100, $200, $500, and $1,000. (Three people were only one digit off, but I want some winners!)

Even if you do not win, you can still use the $50 Inti bill as $50 on any purchase at Winfield's, and you can enter the second chance drawing!

Since I will be out of the office until the 8th of Feb., I will honor the $50 bills and allow you to enter the second chance drawing right up to 5:00 P.M on the 1st of March when we will draw to see who will win the $250 cash prize.

If you wish to be at the drawing, you are certainly welcome. I don't know where we will fit very many people, but it might be a great chance to meet other like minded people, you know, the kind of people who treasure a great value and heirloom quality jewelry.

Well this is the shortest letter any of you ever got from me! See you in February!
