This is truly an extremely rare gem. 6.22cts an indescribably delicious red color to make your eyes beg for more and your heart to beat rapidly with joy! You will save nearly a thousand dollars on this incredible gem.

Normally priced at $5,625

Price: $2,295

This gem is a deep a pink as you can get without its being a Ruby! Super fine! The image shows it to be too "fluorescenty" again...the chrome content just wants to glow in the photog lights. I dont know how to correct it. The color of the gem in natural light is again more red...less purplish--though the color is strongly purple....GIA: PR 5/4....were it pR 5/4 or PR 6/4, it would be a Ruby.

A lot of people would think it is a Ruby just the same...one that is particularly purplish and wonderously bright.....we know such things to be fancy sapphire.....a worthy gem of a place in your collection! $2,700/2295
